San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park

Afternoon Sailing Adventure on San Francisco Bay

- •Feel the waves•
- Breathe salt air
- Handle the lines
- •Learn the stories•

Sail San Francisco Bay aboard the 1891
National Landmark scow schooner Alma!

Join National Park Service Rangers to haul line, raise sails, and immerse yourself in history!

Take in dazzling views and California history: Native Americans, Spanish explorers, the Gold Rush, lighthouses, the Barbary Coast, Fisherman's Wharf, earthquakes, fires, shipbuilding, and more.

Before highways and bridges, hundreds of scow schooners like Alma plied San Francisco Bay, hauling goods as the "flatbed trucks" of their day. The last of her kind, the 60-foot Alma will transport you to a long ago era on this unique educational program with the National Park Service.

Departs from: Hyde St. Pier, at Hyde and Jefferson Streets, San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park

Boarding: 12:30pm

Program length: 1:00 – 4:00pm

Program Dates: Alma sails most Thursdays and Saturdays, June through August and continues sailing most Saturdays through the end of November. Sailing dates will be announced in April.

Rates: Adult: $40

Senior (62+): $30 Child (6-15): $20

Under 6: Free with adult

Reservations and Information: 415-447-5000 Purchase tickets: Same day only, at Hyde St. Pier ticket booth (booth opens at 9:30am daily)

Additional information:

- U.S. Coast Guard certified vessel
- Maximum 37 passengers per trip
- Trip may be cancelled due to weather, or other safety concerns, at discretion of the captain.
- Vessel is wheelchair accessible with assistance.

Rough conditions possible – be prepared for cold, wind, spray and bright sun.

Provided: life jackets and flotation devices

Bring: water (no alcohol permitted), snacks, hat, sunscreen, sunglasses, layers of clothing (for warmth and water resistance), closed toe "active" footwear (no high heels), camera, binoculars, and a sense of adventure!

Park website: www.nps.gov/safr

